Juror Selected for Art on the Green

For immediate Release

January 12, 2009 – Brad Thomas, award winning artist and director of the Van Every/Smith Galleries at Davidson College, has agreed to be the juror for Downtown Davidson Inc.'s Forth Annual Art on the Green. Art on the Green is Davidson's largest art festival of the year and will be held this spring on April 25th and 26th.

As an artist, Brad has been the recipient of several awards including a North Carolina Arts Council Visual Artist Fellowship and New Works Grant. His works are in numerous private and public collections, including the Whitney Museum of American Art.

Brad has been with Davidson College since 1999, where he serves as curator of the College's collection, which consists of over 2700 pieces of art. Included in this collection are works by Rembrandt, Picasso, Matisse, Motherwell, Hockney, and other renowned artists. As curator he also brings in and organizes exhibitions ranging from retrospectives of acclaimed artists to introductions of new, contemporary works.

His expertise as an artist and curator will serve as a guarantee that the selection of works for Art on the Green 2009 will be of the highest quality. For more information on Art on the Green visit www.downtowndavidson.org.
